Group Project

- Size: Around 4 people a group (form the team before Sep-22 Tue)
- Pick a group name (e.g. Banana Traders, All-Winners, What-the-trade)
- Pick a team leader and fill in the shared Google Sheet

Presentation (10%)

- Date: Oct-6 Tue
- Duration: 10 mins for each presentation
- Content: the trading strategies ideas (no need to be the final version in your project implementation) such as
    - High level objectives and trading products
    - Entry/Exit points, position sizing and risk management
- Please email your presentation afterwards for the grading

Final Project Presentation (40%)

- Date: Nov-24 Tue
- Duration: around 15 mins present + 5 mins QA for each presentation
- Every team member has to present a few minutes
- Encourage asking questions to other teams (get individual bonus points)
- Please email your presentation files and codes afterwards for the grading

Project Content: Implement trading strategies with results

Suggested Presentation Content

- Objective of the trading strategies and how it could generate profit
- Which products to trade and the rationale behind your choices
- Expected trading frequency and time horizon
- Data features and indicators used
- How the (Entry/Exit) signals are generated
- Position sizing and management
- Risk management techniques (e.g. stop profit, stop loss)
- Back-testing approach
- Describe the PnL results
- Go through the trade transactions
- What is learned from this project

Marking Schemes

- (10%) Strategy Design and implementation: the idea and creativity (NOT the PnL)
- (10%) Risk management: provide way to control the loss
- (10%) Presentation content: document the strategy and learning experience
- (10%) Individual presentation: present the content clearly and answer the audience questions